CREATIVE WRITING NO. 4

The Pug

What you will need:
• paper and pen
• device (optional).

What to do:
1. Look at this series of photos.
2. Brainstorm on a piece of paper, in your book or on your device, everything that you already know about dogs or Pugs.
3. Write what you See, Think and Wonder about these photos.

<tr>
<th>See</th>
<th>Think</th>
<th>Wonder</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>path</td>
<td>It is in the wood</td>
<td>I wonder what the pug is thinking</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Use the photos, the See, Think, Wonder list and your brainstorming to write a paragraph about what the pug does next or what the pug is thinking about.

What learning is happening:
• connecting to your prior knowledge
• generating ideas and thinking about what features of language makes text entertaining or informative
• developing and extending vocabulary.
