- paper and pen.

What to do:

<th>Man</th>
<th>Setting</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

2. Using the image above to write what you notice about these 3 headings using descriptive words.

3. Write a paragraph from the perspective of a character: the fish or the man. What are they thinking or wondering about?

4. Using your paragraph, now create a speech or thought bubble for your chosen character. What are they thinking? What might they say to one another?
