CREATIVE WRITING NO. 2

Walking on a Web

What you will need:

- paper and pencil.

What to do:

1. Using the image above, think about the following questions. Record your thinking in your book or on paper:
   - How do you think the people became small?
   - Where have they come from?
   - What are they climbing on?

2. Write a short story about … Where they are going? OR ….
   Imagine that you are one of the people in the image, draw and describe what you can see.
What learning is happening:

- generating ideas and thinking about what features and language make a text captivating
- considering your audience as a writer, helps you grow as a writer
- developing and extending your vocabulary.
