WRITE THE END TO THIS STORY

What you will need:

- paper and pen.

What to do:

1. Look carefully at the image provided.
2. Brainstorm your ideas and key words as a plan for this story: the characters, setting and problem.
   Who could they be? What do they look like? What are they doing? Where are they? How are the characters feeling?
3. Write about what happens next. You can choose to:
   - write a short story
   - create a comic strip or
   - your choice.

What learning is happening:

- developing and extending your vocabulary
- learning how to write a variety of texts and genres
- improving the conclusion or resolution of a story
- generating ideas and thinking about what features and language make a text informative.
