

GSCQ Timeframe 2022/23

		2022										2023
		February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February
Option A – for resulting in 2022	EOIs open for schools to deliver the six short qualifications		Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Expressions of interest open	Refer to Option B if wishing to enrol students from this point	End of second week of Nov Teaching and learning complete Teachers to submit results in Canvas	First week of Dec DoE issues certificates
	Short qualifications available for teachers to preview in Canvas (through the year)		Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can commence delivery of the short qualifications no later than end of week three of October, for resulting in the same year.	Third week of Nov DoE conducts Quality Assurance process Fourth week DoE finalises results	DoE provides results to TASC by agreed deadline
		2022								2022			2023
		February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December	January	February
Option B – for resulting in 2023										Schools can request to commence delivery of the short qualifications	Schools can request to commence delivery of the short qualifications	Teaching and learning complete no later than the last day of Term 4	School Holidays	DoE conducts Quality Assurance process during the second week of Term 1 DoE finalises results and provides results to TASC after Quality Assurance process (1 st week March).