

Worried about the safety of a child or young person?

All children have the right to be and feel safe.

You must tell someone if you are worried about the safety of a child or young person.

Report your concern:

Employees

Community members

